The Story of Rodazon and Brendan

Our first contact came through a message from me on One kind of Social Media - I know! Totally random and lame even to ourselves at first. I was having a Number week vacation here in Japan then I ended up staying here for Number months. I was planning to enroll at the Proper Noun Adjective Center but I couldn't find something that can fit in my schedule.

Suddenly, one of the Japan pages popped up on my screen and Brendan was the last person who Verb - Past Tense that page, so I clicked his Facebook and Verb - Past Tense him. I asked if he knew of a tutorial center that only requires an hour or Number for a week. He replied and that's how everything started.

Both of us are not the type to email people we didn't know (except for that moment since I need to know something) I'm not the type to increase my circle of Noun - Plural by searching them on FB, but there was something about him and he was so Adjective that I couldn't erase his messages. We corresponded for about Number months and then actually Verb - Past Tense at Yume Town with my sister and her husband. I am the youngest so they are pretty Adjective. We've been together ever since!

We really both love to Verb - Base Form. We both love the Stone Curry restaurant if we are here in Beppu.

Back in the Philippines, we are both addicted to Jecks restaurant, where we get the special tamarind candy. We both enjoy activities like Verb - Present ends in ING, Verb - Present ends in ING, Verb - Present ends in ING our bikes, _____

Verb - Present ends in ING _____, playing soccer, _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____, and _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ movies.

It wasn't easy at first because after my _____ Number _____ months staying here in Japan, my job and visa application in UK was materialized so I had to move there and we had a long distance relationship. We both went back last March _____ Year _____ to the Philippines for him to meet my _____ Number _____ sisters and also to have the _____
