The Big Wish

Little Jimmy was playing basketball outside all by himself. He sighed "I sure wish I had a brother. So I can play basketball with _____^{Pronoun}." Then he had an idea. He ran inside and asked his mom something he regretted 4 years later. Little Jimmy had asked for a brother.

"NO,NO,NO." Peter screamed as his Mom tried to get _____^{Preposition or subordinating conjunction} _____^{Preposition or subordinating conjunction} on for preschool. "Please Peter let me put on your _____^{Noun - Plural}." "You'll be late for your bus." Little Jimmy _____^{Verb - Past Tense}.

Little Jimmy you'll be late if you don't get ready too." My mom protested. Mom finally got him out the door onto the bus.

A hour later Mom got a call from school _____^{Proper Noun} that Peter was under the _____^{Verb - Past Tense} and was not coming out. So my mom had to come all the way to school and get Peter out from under the _____^{Noun}. But my mom couldn't get him out, so she came into my _____^{Noun} to try to get me to get Peter from under the _____^{Noun}. So I went into Peter's classroom to try to get him out it was no luck. But then Little Jimmy had an idea. He _____^{Verb - Past Tense} out to his _____^{Noun} and got a _____^{Noun}. "I will let you have this _____^{Noun} if you come out." Little Jimmy said. Little Jimmy did not have to say that twice. Peter came out right away. Peter snatched the _____^{Adjective} _____^{Noun} right out of Little Jimmy's hand.

After school Mom fed Peter and put him in his _____ Noun _____ Adverb _____ Adverb very carefully.

Little Jimmy was very bored. So Little Jimmy went to _____ Verb right away. During the night Peter woke up crying. There Mom wasn't _____ Verb - Present Tense into the room. So Little Jimmy got up and took him out of his _____ Noun and cradled him. Little Jimmy started to _____ Verb his little brother.
