Seeking sarcasm, wit, and charm

I'm 47, single, from Bremerton Washington. Fun a bit shy at first and always friendly. Not too muscular, not too skinny, Just your average gal. When I'm not caring for my grandmother I spend my time doing maintenance and home repairs on the family home I live in and from time to time my creative side makes an appearance as I enjoy creating all forms of mixed media and Encaustic art. I believe in that a relationship is a two way path. I like walks in the moonlight and going to the movies. Honesty, a Adjective, being charming, a guy who can make me laugh, are traits I look for in my friends and partners.
