All About My Cubicle

My cubicle is Adjective. It is the Superlative cubicle in the office. I have a Noun on my desk next to a Adjective Noun. In my drawer, I also have a Adjective Noun.

One time a teammate tried to Verb - Base Form a Noun on my desk. I said to him, "hey! how would you like it if I Verb - Base Form your Noun? I'll do it if you don't leave."

My one complaint about my cubicle is that it is Adjective. I think everyone at Lifeline complains about this. We also complain that our cubicle is Adjective. If we had money in our budget, our boss could purchase some Noun - Plural to help alleviate this problem. Our Boss doesn't understand. His cubicle is the size of Location. He has enough room in it to put a Noun and a Noun in there.
