Creation Story

the beginning there was no earth or sky or sea or animals. And then God spoke in the darkness: "Let there be _____Noun!" And right away there was _____Noun, scattering the darkness and showing the infinite space . "That's _____Adjective!" said God. "From now on, when it's dark it will be 'night' and when it's light, it will be 'day'."

The evening came and the night passed and then the light returned. That was the first _____Noun.

On the second day, God made the earth and over it He carefully hung a vast _____color sky. He stood back and admired His creation. "That's _____Adjective too!" said God and the second day was over.

The next morning God looked around and thought, "the earth needs to be a bit more _____Adjective." So, He put all the _____Noun in one place and all the dry _____Noun in another. When He had finished that, God made _____plant to cover the land. _____plant and _____plant appeared. All sorts of _____plant and _____plant began to grow. "It's looking _____Adjective", said God and that was the end of the third day .

On the fourth day, God looked around and thought, "the daylight still needs a bit more work and the night is just too dark." So, He made the _____Noun to light the sky during the day and the _____Noun and _____Noun to add a bit of sparkle to the night. He hung them in the sky and stepped back to look at his work. "This is coming along very _____," said God.

The next day, God turned his attention to the water he had collected in the oceans. "I want these waters teeming with life!" As soon as He said it, it was so. In no time, there were millions of small _____ darting through the shallow water and huge _____ swimming in the ocean. God made birds, too. He sent them soaring through the air. "Ahh, that IS _____!", said God. The dusk fell over the water and the sky grew _____ and that was the end of the fifth day.

On the sixth day, God added creatures to the land. He made _____ and _____ and _____. He made _____ and _____ and _____. He added everything from _____ to _____ to the land. But He still felt something was missing. So God added Mankind to enjoy and take care of all that He had created. God looked around and was _____ with all He had made.

After six days, the whole universe was completed. On the seventh day God had a nice long rest and enjoyed looking at all He had made.
