The Waverly Game

10 seconds into the game and I finally touch the ball and let it _____ Verb - Base Form _____, and right as I let the ball go I know it is going in. Swish. About _____ Adjective _____ seconds later I steal the ball and let another three soar through the air, and as I hear the _____ Noun _____ swish through the net and I hear the fans cheering " _____ Interjection _____, nice shot" , this is when I knew we are gonna win.

As I am thinking Waverly isn't ready for us they go on a 10-0 run, with 2 minutes still left in the first quarter. I was really feeling it this game like I always try to do against Waverly, and I already had 20 points at half and I had managed to help our team tie the game at halftime. However halftime brought _____ Adjective _____ news though, I had got my _____ Adjective _____ bloody _____ Noun _____ of the game, and this one wouldn't stop bleeding. By the time the second half had started I had already made my way through 5 tissues and the bleeding didn't look like it was gonna be stopping anytime soon. Third quarter was when my bloody nose stopped which was _____ Adjective _____, but I had re-hurt my sprained ankle again. It was _____ Adverb _____ swelled up , but I got some tape on it and I was ready to go again in the fourth quarter, and I was ready to win the game.

Immediately the ankle started to hurt in the fourth quarter, but I knew I had the rest of my night to complain about my _____ Noun _____, I was going to win us the game. Waverly had _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ _____ Noun _____ in the fourth quarter, and It was the exact opposite for me. All the shots from the first three quarters that were going in would not fall for me now, but I _____ Adverb _____ started to make my shots with about two minutes left which helped us seal the deal.. We finally ended winning the tough game by 10, and I ended the game with 38 points and 5 assists.

I learned from this game that whatever life Verb - Base Form at you, like a sprained ankle, or a Adjective nose, you just gotta keep moving forward and don't let anything stop you from reaching your goal. And keep fighting, keep competing, keep working, and you will be granted with good things, like our win against Waverly.
