Trip to Colorado Springs

I woke up early in the morning at around 4:00, almost ready to _____ Verb - Base Form _____ Adverb at my alarm clock. Then I realized, today is the day we go to Colorado Springs for the adjective _____ Adjective Schwickerath Family Reunion. We gathered our things and pulled out of the driveway, waving goodbye to our _____ Adjective _____ Adjective house.

For the drive we didn't spend too much time at the gas stations as we drove across _____ Location, which is by far literally the worst state to drive through, unless you enjoy looking out your window and seeing nothing but _____ Noun. We got across the Nebraska/Colorado border and actually _____ Verb - Past Tense in joy. " _____ interjection ".

Colorado, here we are. We got a bit lost when driving around the _____ Location area, but we eventually made it to the resort called Manitou Springs. We were _____ Adverb shocked when we saw the resort because we were expecting a two day drive, but I guess we left early enough to make the trip in one.

The disappointment was definitely there when we arrived and they said that we couldn't check in after eleven O'clock so we drove back to a little _____ Noun and spent the night there.

The following morning we check into the resort and we explored, doing everything there was to do, _____ verb ending in ing, _____ verb ending in ing, _____ verb ending in ing.

The next day _____ was awesome, we went about a half an hour's drive outside of the resort and went horseback riding for pretty close to _____ unit of time and time up and around a mountain called _____ Location.

That was the highlight of that day which was way more fun than I expected.

On our last day we left really early in the morning so we could make it back with a little time to rest on the day after.

After two years and not realizing it, I think that was the probably the most fun I have my entire life.
