Halloween

On the night of October 31, 1963, in Haddonfield, Illinois, 6-year-old Michael Myers murders his older sister Judith Myers by _____ Verb - Present ends in ING her with a large kitchen _____ Noun. Fifteen years later, on October 30, 1978, Michael escapes Warren County Smith's Grove Sanitarium, where he had been _____ Verb - Past Tense since the murder, stealing the car that was to take him to a court hearing, the intention of which was for him to never be released.

The following day, Halloween, 21-year-old Michael, now dressed in a blue _____ Noun and a white _____ Noun, returns to his hometown of Haddonfield and begins _____ Verb - Present ends in ING high school student Laurie Strode ). Laurie informs her friends, Annie Brackett and Lynda van der Klok ) that she believes someone is following her but they dismiss her concerns. Later at her house, Laurie becomes startled to see Michael outside in the yard staring into her room. Elsewhere, Michael's psychiatrist, Dr. Sam Loomis ), having anticipated Michael's return home, goes to the local cemetery only to discover that Judith Myers' _____ Noun is missing. Later, Loomis meets with Sheriff Leigh Brackett (Charles Cyphers), and the two search for Michael.

That night, Laurie babysits Tommy Doyle ), while Annie _____ Verb - Present ends in S Lindsay Wallace ) across the street from the Doyle house. When Annie gets a call from her boyfriend Paul asking her to pick him up, she drops Lindsay off at the Doyle house. Annie gets in her car to pick up Paul but Michael, who was hiding in the backseat of her car, _____ Verb - Present ends in S her before _____ Verb - Present ends in ING her throat, killing her. At the Doyle house, while he plays hide-and-seek with Lindsay, Tommy spots Michael carrying Annie's corpse and tries to tell Laurie, who doesn't believe in any "boogeyman" that Tommy says he saw. Later that evening, Lynda and her boyfriend Bob enter the Wallace house and have sex in the upstairs bedroom. While downstairs to get a _____ Noun for Lynda, Bob is _____ Verb - Past Tense by Michael, who kills him by _____ Verb - Present ends in _____ ING him to the wall with his _____ Noun. Michael then appears in the bedroom doorway, pretending to be Bob in a ghost costume. Gaining no response from him, Lynda becomes annoyed and calls Laurie, just as Michael kills her by _____ Verb - Present ends in ING her with the telephone cord.

Feeling unsettled, Laurie puts Tommy and Lindsay to bed and goes to the Wallace house, where she discovers the _____ Noun - Plural of Annie, Bob, and Lynda. She is suddenly attacked by Michael. She falls down the staircase, but she quickly recovers. Fleeing the house, she screams for _____ Noun, but to no avail. Running back to the Doyle house, she realizes she lost the keys and the door is locked, as she sees Michael approaching in the distance. Laurie panics and screams for Tommy to wake up and open the door quickly. Luckily, Tommy opens the door in time and lets Laurie inside. Laurie instructs Tommy and Lindsay to hide and then realizes the phone _____ Noun is dead and that Michael has gotten into the house through a window. As she sits down in horror next to the couch, Michael appears and tries to _____ Verb her, but she stabs him in the side of his neck with a _____ Adjective _____ Noun.

goes upstairs telling Tommy and Lindsay she killed the "boogeyman", but Michael reappears in pursuit of her.

Telling the kids to _____ Verb _____ and lock themselves in the bathroom, Laurie opens the French windows to feign escape and hides in a bedroom closet. Michael punches a hole in the closet door to get to her. However,

Laurie frantically undoes a metal _____ Noun - Plural _____ Verb _____ to stick Michael in the eye, and she then stabs Michael with his own _____ Noun _____. Michael collapses and Laurie exits the closet, then tells the children to go find help. Dr. Loomis sees Tommy and Lindsay running away from the house _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ and suspects Michael could be inside. Back inside, Michael gets up and tries to strangle Laurie, but Loomis arrives in time to save her. Loomis shoots Michael in the chest at point-blank range, who then falls from the second-story patio onto the lawn below. Laurie asks Loomis if that was the "boogeyman", to which Loomis confirms. However, when Loomis looks over the balcony, he finds Michael's body is missing.
