Great Depression

I grew up as an only child in _____ Location where my father worked at a water treatment plant. In _____ Year the city and our bank went bankrupt, after that we lost all of our money. Soon we couldn't afford to _____ Verb in our apartment and had to move in with my _____ family member and her _____ Noun - Plural.

The owner of the building couldn't afford to keep on the electricity so when it got _____ Adjective out we had to light candles to see. The school _____ Preposition us closed down and we had to walk _____ Number blocks to go to a _____ Adjective makeshift school in a Hooverville. When we didn't have school we would _____ Verb around the city to try and find food. The _____ food stand at the end of our street was our favorite spot to steal from. When we were done we would _____ Adverb sneak into the theater and watch _____ Adjective movies. Eventually when the money problems got really _____ Adjective, me and my cousins got jobs, I got one making _____ Proper Noun and my cousins got jobs at the cannery. While I hated the _____ Adjective work and always wanted to get home as _____ Adverb as possible, I knew that when I got home we would all sit down and listen to our favorite radio show.
