Aromes

Aromes, a _____ Verb - Present Tense new 28-seat French restaurant in Hampden, is unique in Baltimore. Each night at Aromes, chef and owner Steve Monnier prepares _____ Number dishes, including dessert. And that's it . Only a few restaurants in Baltimore offer such a _____ Adjective menu, but their diners get to choose from among at least a few appetizers, pasta dishes and entrees.

At Aromes, there are no choices to be made, except for this one: Do you want three of the plates for $ _____ Number or all six for $ _____ Number? The dishes are served one by one, with enough time between courses to chat with your dinner companion about _____ Noun, _____ Noun or _____ Noun - Plural. There's something about Monnier's food that makes you want to give it your full attention. There are flavors to figure out and techniques to ponder.
