Yom Haatzmaut on Shlav Hey

Yom Haatzmaut for Shlav Hey

It's that time of year again! Its Yom Haatzmaut and those people of Shlav Hey are getting ready for their celebratory barbeque. First, Bayla, who is very , puts out a clear email to ask all the neighbors to sign up to bring both a food item that is, and something that is not Yehoshua often volunteers to at the barbeque because he knows he's the Adjective - Ends in EST Rael always likes to bring his ethnic South African; who knows what they are made of. I sure hope it isn't Animal (plural) ! He thinks they are, but not everyone agrees. Tzippy's hamburgers are , because of her ingredients, like and People bring lots of salads and desserts, some made with veggies or grains, others made with less ingredients. Some people who think they can get away with bringing onlyNoun - Plural or, but that's really not fair to the others who have worked so hard. MarcAdverb gets everyone to sing his song "Boker"; His voice usually sounds like Animal (plural) The fireworks go off and kids come running out of their wearing only their pajamas, with their Part of Body and Part of Body hanging out. In contrast, the adults don't run so anymore. They are getting old, and tired. Shalom Hammer is always away at this time of year, in some place like Location or Location or Location, and doesn't attend this
