The Life And Untimely Death Of [Insert Name Here]

was a/an Adjective man. He was always there to help his only freinds, First name and

First name. Even though first name was a complete insult. Frank, however, was the only reason he got his job as a/an therapist. Bob's father, Harlington, was convicted for killing his only child. Which doesn't really matter because no one really gives a shit about Harlington anyway. As you keep on reading this obituary, you will come to the conclusion that Bob had a really fucked up life. Well he did. Rest in peace, Bob.

1803-1874.
