Marie Thibodeaux

She was also a Voodoo High Priestess.

She lived her entire life in New _____ _____, establishing a reputation from an early age as a
_____ and _____. People travelled for miles simply to visit her _____
, although many more sampled her legendary _____. By the _____, she had simultaneously become one of the most _____ and revered figures in _____.

In 1881, a landowner named _____ _____ travelled to New
_____ from Baton _____. Parrish was vastly wealthy and devoutly religious, but possessed a _____ fascination for the _____. He had hired a platoon of _____ from the recently concluded Civil _____, and with them he marched down Bourbon _____ and into Marie's
_____.

Despite the protests of her assistants, Marie granted Parrish an audience. He had heard rumours that the great Voodoo _____ had discovered the secret to eternal _____, and demanded that she yield it to him

Never _____, Marie corrected him: she had indeed discovered a ritual that would grant but only for a set period of time - _____<sup>Year</sup>_____ years, to be exact. Once performed, the subject would rise again after his natural death, having no need for food, _____<sup>Noun</sup>_____, or _____<sup>Noun</sup>_____, immune to disease, and utterly impervious to _____<sup>Part of Body</sup>_____ harm. After fifty years had elapsed, however, the subject would die once more, never to rise again.

Frustrated by this revelation, Parrish nevertheless knew her by reputation to be an _____<sup>Adjective - Ends in EST</sup>_____ woman, and would not pass up the opportunity to live beyond his natural lifespan. Marie agreed to conduct the _____<sup>Event</sup>_____ for him, as long as he vowed to leave New _____<sup>Location</sup>_____ permanently once it had been concluded. Parrish agreed, and the _____<sup>Event</sup>_____ was performed. True to his word, Parrish returned to Baton Rouge later that day - but not before ordering his mercenaries to murder Marie and her assistants and to burn her _____<sup>Location</sup>_____ to the ground.

_____<sup>Location</sup>_____ folk are renowned for their superstitions, which are many and varied. It was unusual, however, that dozens would later swear that they had seen _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____ _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup>_____ making their way en masse up to the Parrish Manse that night. The following morning, the _____<sup>Number</sup>_____ mercenaries were found with their _____<sup>Part of Body</sup>_____ snapped as though they had been _____<sup>Noun</sup>_____. Parrish himself was discovered in his bed, wide-eyed and apparently terror-stricken, his throat torn out with such _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____ that the State Coroner was forced to conclude that a bear had somehow made its way into his locked, second-floor bedroom. The hints of _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____ magic were not lost on locals, however, who promptly buried all

_____ First Name of a Person _____ Thibodeaux was a _____ Adjective _____ woman. She never told a lie, but that is not to say that she never withheld the truth. What she had not disclosed was that resurrection would not take place until _____ Number _____ hours after death.

When _____ First Name of a Person _____ grave was exhumed for relocation in 1953, puzzled excavators noted the singularly deep gouge marks found inside the _____ Noun _____ lid.
