Chicken Rampage

Once upon a time, there was a minecraft player called Dustin, he loved playing sky wars (wich is a game where you try to get good _____ Noun - Plural and defeat your enemies). Today, Dustin is playing against Alex the Snowgolem, Kevin the skeleton, Steve the master of parcour (apparently a monkey), Jason the creeper, Angela the cat, Bob the dog and Ben the endermen. All of them had experience and won more than 99 times. They were eager to start but the game starts in 5 minutes, so they waited, and waited. After what seemed an _____ Noun, the game started. Dustin visites his island and saw that on his _____ Noun there was a tree, and a red _____ Noun. In the _____ Noun, he found a chest with an iron chestplate, 64 seeds, an enderpearl, a stone pickaxe, and an overpowered _____ Noun. He took everything and used kit chicken wich lets him throw infinite eggs. From far away, Angela used kit cat wich lets her blind people with _____ Noun. She types in the chat: Dustin team?, so Dustin said: OK. Dustin and Angela built bridges to meet each other, but when Angela got to Dustin, she blinded him with _____ Noun. Dustin panicked and threw eggs all around him. Surprisingly he knocked Angela, BenD (Ben the dog), Alex, Jason, and Steve off into the void (the void was a place where you die automatically). The only ones left were Dustin (obviously), Ben the endermen because he _____ Verb - Past Tense, and Kevin because he was too far. Ben teleported and almost killed Dustin, but Kevin shot him off the island before he could. Then Dustin knocked Kevin off his island, but he triggered a pressure plate which activated 100 _____ Noun that exploded Dustin. So Kevin won _____ Adjective.
