Robert Frost

I found a _____ Adjective _____ Noun _____, _____ Adjective and white,

On a white heal-all, holding up a moth

Like a white piece of _____ Adjective satin cloth--

Assorted _____ Noun - Plural of death and blight

Mixed ready to begin the morning right,

Like the ingredients of a witches' broth--

A snow-drop _____ Noun: same as first noun, a flower like a froth,

And dead wings _____ Verb - Past Tense like a _____ Adjective kite.

What had that _____ Noun to do with being white,

The wayside _____ Color and innocent heal-all?

What brought the _____ Adjective _____ Noun: same as first noun to that height,

Then _____ Verb - Past Tense the white moth thither in the night?

What but design of darkness to appall?--

If design govern in a thing so small.
