Minouju and Minoubi

Once upon a           Noun           in a distant           Noun           two very           Noun                     Noun           one named           Proper Noun           and her little           Noun                     Proper Noun          . One           Noun           they meet           Proper Noun          . Somedays           Noun           she became there           Noun          . One day they meet           Proper Noun           she is           Noun          .           Proper Noun           liked           Proper Noun           the           Noun           but she           Noun           her           Noun           small           Noun                     Noun          . Somedays after           Proper Noun           and           Proper Noun           discovered           Noun                     Noun           about           Proper Noun          . She was a ...           Noun          ! Her mission was to find           Noun           and           Noun                     Noun                     Proper Noun          . So           Proper Noun           and           Proper Noun           killed           Proper Noun          . Somedays, later they meet           Proper Noun           a           Noun           also. And           Proper Noun          ,           Proper Noun          ,           Proper Noun           and           Proper Noun           lived           Noun                     Noun                     Noun          .
