Camping Adventure by the Fireside

Last weekend we were out in the State Park, just _____ Verb - Present Tense around the campfire when we heard a sound in darkness. _____ SOUND EFFECT! We all sat straight up, listening _____ Adverb. More _____ Verb - Present ends in ING in the brush and then silence. _____ Proper Noun and _____ Proper Noun quickly relaxed. _____ Proper Noun drifted back to sleep and began to snore _____ Adverb. _____ Proper Noun went back to telling his story. I remained on edge, with an _____ Part of Body trained towards the woods.

"The campers were all settled snugly in their _____ Noun - Plural bags, when one noticed everything had gotten _____ Adjective. Not a single _____ Animal made a sound. Then suddenly... _____ Animal Sound! He peeked out the tent zipper and saw glowing _____ color eyes off in the distance."

We were on _____ Noun - Plural and _____ Noun - Plural to hear the fate of these _____ Adjective campers. We had no idea something else had settled down to hear the story nearby.

"What was it?" _____ Proper Noun asked. "What animal made that sound?"

_____ Proper Noun looked around the fire at each one of us, then as he opened his mouth to finish the story, we heard it. A _____ Animal Sound like nothing we'd ever heard before.

Joe's

_____ Part of Body turned _____ color and he tumbled backwards off his _____ something you sit on while pointing over my _____ Part of Body.

I turned _____ Adverb to see what was there, while everyone scrambled to find a place to hide or grab a weapon.

Right behind me was the _____ Adjective _____ Animal I could ever imagine! With _____ color _____ Part of Body and a hungry look on his face.

I was frozen in _____ emotion. The _____ Animal looked me up and down. Then walked over to the picnic table and proceeded to eat all of our s'mores _____ Noun - Plural. Then just as _____ Adverb as it arrived, it slipped back into the darkness. But on it's way it bumped a _____ Noun which collapsed and fell on _____ Proper Noun.

He woke up startled. "What did I miss?"
