

Joe's Adventure

1. Adjective
2. Collective Noun
3. Familial

Joe's Adventure

One night, Joseph prayed to know what God (aka [_____ Adjective _____] [Familial relationship]) wanted him to do.

As he [verb, past tense], a [_____ collective noun _____ noun] filled the room, and a [noun] named Moroni appeared. He was sent by [Adjective] [same _____ familial _____ relationship as before]. He told Joseph about an ancient [noun] engraved on gold [noun, plural].

Moroni [intransitive verb] [preposition ("pointer" word)] Joseph all night; such as that the next day, Joseph couldn't [verb] because he was so [adjective].

Moroni appeared to Joseph and repeated what he'd said the night before. Then he told Joseph to tell his [familial relationship] about the [noun, plural].

Joseph went to the [place]. When he [verb, past tense] a(n) [adjective] [noun], he saw the [adjective] plates, the Urim and Thummim, and a [part of body]-plate buried in a [adjective] [noun].

Moroni told him to [verb] every year for [number] years. During that time, Joseph received many [noun, plural] from Moroni.

The next year, Joseph returned to the [place]. He took the [noun, plural] out of the [noun] and put them on the [noun] for [an amount of time]. When he tried to pick them up again, they were gone!

Moroni said they disappeared because Joseph was commanded to not let the plates leave his [part of body, plural] until he got to his [place].

Joseph learned to be more [adjective] and [adjective]. On September 22, 1827, Joseph and his wife, [famous person], rode to the [famous landmark] at [time of day].

Joseph

got the [adjective] plates, and [name of a hobby, group, or club] was [adverb] to the Earth.