Kurt Sloane is the occupation for his brother Eric, an American Verb - Present ends in ING champion.

Kurt and Eric travel to Bangkok to challenge Tong Po, Thailand's undefeated champion. After a Adjective first round, Kurt realizes that they are Verb - Past Tense by Tong Po and tries to convince his brother to stop the fight. Unwilling to give up, Eric returns for the second round and continues to take a vicious beating, finally prompting Kurt to throw in the Noun. Tong Po ignores him and continues the assault, which ultimately leaves Eric Adjective from the Part of Body down. Eric is then Verb - Past Tense outside and left on the Location without any help, until Winston Taylor, a retired American special forces member, intervenes and agrees to take the brothers to the hospital. After several hours of surgery, the doctor informs Kurt that Eric will never Verb - Base Form again.

Furious, Kurt vows to Verb - Base Form his brother but is warned by Taylor that the only way to fight Tong Po is in the ring, as going after him outside the ring will result in reprisals against Americans by Thailand citizens because Tong Po is a national Noun. Though Adjective at first, Taylor eventually tells him about Xian Chow, a locally famous trainer living in a remote area of Thailand. Upon locating Xian, Kurt is able to convince him to train him in the art of Muay Thai. Xian trains Kurt using many primitive methods and focusing on speed, agility, and the ability to Verb - Base Form himself through balance and Adverb breathing. While training, Kurt attempts to foil the operations of a group of Thai mobsters led by Freddy Li, who continuously steal Noun - Plural from the store of Xian's niece, Mylee and threaten her. After Kurt makes short work of the thugs in a bar fight with Freddy Li looking on, Xian is able to convince Freddy Li arrange a match between Kurt and Tong Po. It is determined that they will fight in the " _____ Adjective _____ way", in which both fighters wrap their hands in _____ Adjective _____ Noun _____, which is then coated in resin and dipped in broken _____ Noun _____ to make them deadly weapons.

Freddy Li arranges to have the fight fixed, and borrows $1 million from the crime syndicate's boss to bet on Tong Po. In the days leading up to the match, Mylee is _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ and _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ by Tong Po while Eric is _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ by Freddy Li's henchmen for the purpose of blackmailing Kurt into losing the fight. To save his brother's _____ Noun _____, Kurt is instructed by Freddy Li to go the distance with Tong Po before losing the match. He endures a _____ Adjective _____ beating, but fortunately, Xian and Taylor are able to locate and rescue Eric before the fight concludes. With his brother free from danger, Kurt manages to find a second wind and defeat Tong Po in a vicious fashion. For good measure, he also _____ Verb - Present ends in _____ s _____ Freddy Li.
