

Ask the Bird, a poem (focus on nouns and questions)

1. Noun _____
2. Noun _____
3. Verb _____
4. Verb _____
5. Noun _____
6. Verb _____
7. Noun _____
8. Noun _____
9. Verb _____
10. Noun _____
11. Noun _____
12. Noun _____

Ask the Bird, a poem (focus on nouns and questions)

My bird, my birdy birdy, can you sing me a _____
Noun_____?

My human, my old and only human, I can sing you that.

Pretty bird, can you fly me a _____
Noun_____?

Man, my human, I can _____
Verb_____ you that.

Oh, baby bird, can you _____
Verb_____ me a morning _____
Noun_____?

Yes, humongous human, I can bring you that.

Then sweet, sweet bird, can you _____
Verb_____ to me the _____
Noun_____?

Of course, I can point to you that.

So then, my lovely bird, can you tell me your _____
Noun_____?

Certainly, my kind little keeper, I can _____
Verb_____ you that.

And your _____
Noun_____?

I can.

But first, my bird of _____
Noun_____, can you ask me for mine?

But second, my dear _____
Noun_____, can I really ask you that?