

What Are You Running From, Ostrich? (Adjectives)

1. Adjective _____
2. Adjective _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Adjective _____
8. Adjective _____
9. Adjective _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Adjective _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Adjective _____
14. Adjective _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Adjective _____

What Are You Running From, Ostrich? (Adjectives)

Look at that _____ Adjective _____ ostrich run! What is that _____ Adjective _____ bird doing? It can run so _____ Adjective _____ but why does it look up? It might trip if it doesn't just look straight. Tell him, "Watch out, you _____ Adjective _____ bird! You might bump into another _____ Adjective _____ bird!" But look there, do you see them? Oh my, what _____ Adjective _____ legs they have, and what _____ Adjective _____ necks they have. And their tails, they are so _____ Adjective _____. Its body is like a running _____ Adjective _____ pillow. Would you ever give your pillow a bath? Maybe all those birds are running away from a _____ Adjective _____ flood filled with _____ Adjective _____ animals and _____ Adjective _____ things. Now, look, one of those _____ Adjective _____ pillows is jumping, and stretching its _____ Adjective _____ wings. Don't they know that they can't fly? What are they running from? Maybe something _____ Adjective _____? Or something _____ Adjective _____ and hungry? Now, where are those flapping _____ Adjective _____ pillows going?