

How I Spent My Summer

1. Adjective

How I Spent My Summer

This summer was very [_____Adjective_____] for me. Right after my [plural noun] got done with [noun], they started [verb]. So, I packed them up in the [noun] and headed for the [noun]. There we [verb] with the [noun] and [verb] with the [adjective] [noun]. The [noun] were very [adjective].

On a normal day, I would [verb], [verb], and [verb]. My [noun] would [verb]. If we were feeling really [adjective], we would [verb]. The [noun] [verb] that.

Later in the summer, we [verb] a lot of [noun]. One day, we went to the [noun]. The [plural noun] wanted to [verb] and [verb]. I just wanted to [verb]. We compromised and [verb]. We all got very [adjective]. It was [number] days before I could [verb] again. But we all had a [adjective] time!

My [adjective] thing that we did was [verb] [noun]. It was something I had [adverb] [verb] very [adjective]. it was [adjective]! I have never been so [adjective] in my [noun]. I would [verb] [adverb] in a [noun].

Overall, it was a really [adjective] summer. Still, I was [adjective] when my [plural noun] went back to [noun] and things got back to [adjective]. I need a vacation from summer vacation!