bellemomma

I worked in a Noun for 2 and a half years and the biggest problem I saw was Verb - Present Tense .

Seriously, all of the women just Verb - Past Participle and talked Noun about each other all the time.

We had 3 Preposition or subordinating conjunction out on the Number one time and I was the only one actually paying attention to the Preposition or subordinating conjunction until I saw a Verb get hurt and rushed over. One of the Noun - Plural saw me rush over and came over and basically Verb - Past Tense me out of the way to take over .. of course they don't want people to know they're too busy Verb - Present Tense to each other to pay attention to the Noun - Plural .
