Baby Naugle

When Nikki and Andy first met they knew right away they were destined to be together. Andy was immediately attracted to Nikki's body part and Nikki loved Andy's internal organ. So in 6 months they were engaged and planned a large household chore.

At the wedding everyone raved about the wild animal and the wild animal and their crazy dance moves. The highlight of the evening was the silly word dancing.

Before you knew it there was a/an verb look in Andy's eyes. He told Nikki it was time to start a fruit.

After a romantic dinner of art material and cleaning product, with a little automotive product to drink, the verb began.

Three weeks later Nikki took a medical test test and they discovered the emotion news - she was pregnant!

Now they are busy decorating the name of room, picking out names such as girl cartoon and boy cartoon.

Most pregnant women have cravings and Nikki is no exception. She has sent Andy to the store for things like a _____ Noun and a _____ Noun. But overall the pregnancy is passing without a hitch and before you know it _____ animal, the little _____ animal will enter the world.
