'Twas the night before Christmas

'Twas the night before _____Holiday_____, when all through the house

Not a creature was stirring, not even a _____Animal_____;

The stockings were hung by the chimney with _____Noun_____,

In hopes that St. _____Celebrity_____ soon would be there;

The children were nestled all snug in their beds;

While visions of _____Noun - Plural_____ danced in their heads;

And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,

Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap,

When out on the _____Noun_____ there arose such a clatter,

I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.

Away to the window I flew like a _____Noun_____,

Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the _____Body Part_____ of the new-fallen snow,

Gave a lustre of midday to objects below,

When what to my wondering eyes did appear,

But a miniature sleigh and _____Number_____ tiny rein-deer,

With a little old driver so lively and quick,

I knew in a moment he must be St. _____Celebrity_____.

More

rapid than eagles his coursers they came,

And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name:

"Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now Prancer and Vixen!

On, Comet! on, Cupid! on, Donner and Blitzen!

To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!

Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!"

As leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,

When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky;

So up to the housetop the coursers they flew

With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Celebrity too--

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof

The Verb - Present ends in ING and Verb - Present ends in ING of each little hoof.

As I drew in my head, and was turning around,

Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur, from his Body Part to his Body Part,

And his Noun - Plural were all tarnished with ashes and soot;

A bundle of toys he had flung on his back,

And he looked like a pedler just opening his pack.

His eyes--how they Verb - Past Tense! his dimples, how merry!

His

cheeks were like roses, his nose like a Noun!

His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,

And the beard on his chin was as white as the snow;

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his Body Part,

And the smoke, it encircled his head like a wreath;

He had a broad face and a little round Body Part

That shook when he laughed, like a bowl full of Noun.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,

And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself;

A Verb - Base Form of his eye and a Verb - Base Form of his head

Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread;

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his Noun,

And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,

And laying his Body Part aside of his nose,

And giving a Noun, up the chimney he rose;

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a Noun,

And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.

But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight--

"Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good Noun!"
