

The Short Honeymoon

1. Adjective
-

The Short Honeymoon

Matthew and Jessica were finally married! For their honeymoon they went to [place]. When they arrived to their dream honeymoon they went to the [noun] and ordered [adjective] [noun]. Their next stop was the beach. While they were there they rented [plural noun]. Matt and Jess were having so much fun they couldn't stop [verb ending in -ing]. After _____ Adjective _____ up quite the appetite, Matt said, "I'm so hungry, I could eat a [noun]". Jess replied, "Well good thing I made reservations for a [adjective] dinner." At dinner they ordered [food] and [drink]. After dinner, they went for a [adjective] stroll on the beach. Looking at the stars, Matt said to Jessica, "[nickname], you are so [adjective]." Jessica replied, "[nickname], I am so [emotion] I get to [past tense verb] the rest of my life with you."