The Rain Of Terror 2.0

Once upon a time there was a terrible king named King Proper Noun XIV. He was such a bad king he let people take advantage of him. One day Proper Noun XIV was put on trial as a Noun of France. He was soon beheaded. Later on a man named Proper Noun comes along and rises to power. Proper Noun embraces Rousseau's idea of people ruling together. He first aims to abolish slavery but, he wants a better France more and is willing to Verb for it. 20,000 - 40,000 people Verb - Past Tense later, the people finally realize how messed up this guy is and finally decides to Verb him. There was then of course a French Noun that lasted about ten years. And soon, they all lived happily ever after after Proper Noun came along.
