A Celtic Adventure

A Celtic           Noun           named           Name           , was out in a Location           , when he saw the most beautiful thing, it was a           Noun           !

And the was so           same noun           , and fun to play with, that he decided to take it home. That was a           Adjective           idea, because when he got home, it started to tear up his favorite           Furniture           !           Exclamation he cried! My favorite           Same Furniture           ...and then he was very           Emotion           . Then he took the           Same Noun           , and Verb - ends in ED           it so far and hard that it never came back.
