My Ball!

The very Adjective kitty was playing with his favorite ball of yarn. The sound of the Noun made him jump and his ball went rolling. The kitty was very Adjective, he followed the string to try and find his ball of yarn. As he followed the Noun he ran across a Adjective ant. Kitty asked have you seen my favorite ball of yarn. The ant told him it Verb - Past Tense around the Adjective brown chair. Kitty continued following the yarn until he ran into a very Adjective Noun. Excuse me mouse have you seen my favorite ball of yarn, asked kitty. Why yes I did it went up the Adjective piano. Kitty ran up the piano and saw his favorite ball of yarn was now very Adjective. Kitty started to Verb the ball back up. Kitty got his favorite Adjective red ball of yarn back together.
