Meeting Daud

I was _____ Number years old. I had traveled from _____ City to Dunwall in order to find a place to _____ Verb - Base Form, because my _____ Noun had died and I had no _____ Noun - Plural. I was rummaging through a trash can when someone approached me from behind. It was a man, and he was very _____ Adjective. He was also quite _____ Adjective and he wore a red coat and carried a _____ Noun. I was scared, because I thought he might gonna _____ Verb - Base Form me. But he didn't. Instead, he put a hand against my _____ body part and, with soft eyes, said: "I can offer you a place to live and sleep if you promise to _____ Verb - Base Form for me instead". I noticed he had a long _____ Noun crossing the right side of his face. He looked _____ Adjective, I might add. But I nodded, because what I needed the most in that moment was to have a place where I could _____ Verb - Base Form and _____ Verb - Base Form at peace. That man could tell me to _____ Verb - Base Form his _____ Noun - Plural for him for all I cared!

But then I asked him: "Who are you?"

And he _____ Verb - Past Tense, and it reminded me of stormy days and waves and angered _____ animal - Plural. "I'm Daud". He replied.

He then took my _____ body part, and in the blink of an eye, we were out.
