Me and You

June 20th, 2015. The day that has been in the making for 6 years. We found the _____ Noun of our dreams, had a _____ Noun that would get anyone's taste buds _____ Adjective, and our decor was _____ Adjective!

As I _____ Verb - Base Form in the Bridal Suite with my girlfriends, mom, and aunt my _____ Noun were steady as can be. I could not wrap my head around the fact that the day of my _____ Noun was upon us. Everything had _____ Verb - Base Form into place and every last detail was perfect, except one.

The weather had turned and a _____ Noun was rolling in- not ideal for our _____ Adjective outdoor ceremony. But you would never have known by looking at me. I was _____ Adjective, and the weather was going to do whatever it wanted, but was not going to ruin my day. I had in my head that no matter what, I was _____ Verb - Present ends in ING down that aisle.

And I did. I _____ Verb - Past Tense down the aisle with my dad holding an umbrella, past all of our _____ Noun holding guests to my groom. The ceremony began and the rain poured! Thunder rolled and our guests got _____ Adjective! Holding _____ Noun with my groom, I looked out and laughed.

Our wedding day, despite the _____ Noun, was incredible! The perfect launch into the new stage of our life.

Now we are husband and wife and our life together is a lot like our wedding, perfectly imperfect.
