The best date

I'm finally going on a date with First name Last name, a Adjective Occupation who I've known for Time measurement - minutes years seconds. I'm so Emotion whilst getting ready, I put on a Colour hairband and some Adjective shoes. They're Number minutes late and I'm a bit worried, but when they get here they apologise and tell me that their pet Animal was sick. We leave in a Mode of transport to go to a Location. When we get there we Verb - Base Form for ages, and they confess a secret; when they were Number, they accidentally burned a Noun! I cried with laughter. They asked if we could go out again some time and I said of Course or Course not.
