LA letter

Dear, Mom

Thank you for coming to my student _____Noun_____. I am writing this letter to tell you about school for me. I will explain to you in this letter a typical day for me, how I'm doing in school, and some goals I have for myself.

So a _____Adjective_____ day for me looks like this. I enter the school around 8:30 or sometimes later. I then grab my stuff from my locker and head to my _____Proper Noun_____. I typically like coming early because I get to _____Noun_____ to my friends.

It depends on what period order and if it's an A or B day for my classes. Like for example our _____Verb -_____ Present ends in ING order right now is 435612. That means that I have options, core classes. I prefer having my _____Adverb_____ in the middle of the day because it gives me a break.

In school academically I'm doing great. I'm very proud of my marks this year. Having the student teacher has been _____Verb - Base Form_____ but I'm still doing good. Social is going great as normal. Science is doing good and is so LA.

For goals I would really like to get an A in math. I really want to get honors this year. And I would like to focus better on my _____Noun_____ so I can achieve these goals.

I would like to thank you mom for coming and reading this letter.

From, Savannah
