letter to parents

March 10,2016

Dear Mom and Dad

Thank you for coming to my _____ Noun led conference. I'm _____ Verb - Present Tense this letter to show you what a _____ Adjective day is like for me.im going to tell you about my typical day with goals, cores, lunch, and after school.

Here's how my school _____ Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present looks like in the morning. I get to the school around 8: _____ Number from the _____ Noun. When I get in the school I go to my _____ Noun and get my stuff for my option or core classes. When I get my _____ funny object for my class I go and drop it off then when I'm done I go and walk around till the bell.

I have four mandatory core classes which include math, la, social, and science. My favourite subject is math and science because I _____ Verb - Non 3rd Person Singular Present the teachers but not my student teacher.

Then after all of those we have lunch my _____ Noun part of school because I get to talk to my friend and play football. I play football at lunch recess to keep me _____ Verb - Past Participle and I love _____ Noun.

After school I take the bus home and if I have basketball I have to go to practice or a game. My favorite sport is _____ Noun because I love to play it. Then when I get home I talk to my dad and I play _____ Proper Noun and _____ Verb with my friends. Academically I'm doing fine but when we got a student teacher in math he is really hard to understand. But everything else is fine like I love all my teachers and _____ Noun - Plural.

My goals are to work hard and make more _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction at school and get A's in my classes.

and get a scholarship for basketball.

to end, i would like to Pronoun u for coming and taking Noun time to read my boring

Proper Noun.
