Best friends

One Noun a new student came to Adrienne clarkson Adjective school. That girl was very lonely , she had no friends. She entered her class with the principal and when she walked in she felt like everyone was starring and saying mean words in their heads. The principal had asked the class who would like to be the girls helper and tell her Adverb everything is. No one raised their hands so the principal had to pick someone she had chosen Nicole the new girl didn't know everyone in her class but she knew that Nicole was like one of the most popular girls in the school. So after everyone chose their desk Nicole showed the new girl around and when they were walking around the school they started talking and it seemed that they had a lot in commen and throughout the year they kept on hanging out so by the Noun of the year they became best Noun - Plural .
