Superteachers

There was once a group of preschool heroes who called themselves the Noun - Plural. These kids had some interesting superpowers, like First Name of a Person who excelled at Adjective. And another named First Name of a Person who was able to Adjective using his Noun. Their favorite super teacher was First Name of a Person who had a great ability to make Noun - Plural disappear with her mind. These superheroes were in need of some Noun because the evil genius Dr. Animal had a plan for them. He planned to trap them using his Noun Ray to steal all their powers. Only one thing could stop the evil genius, so the superheroes needed to work together! They had an idea and created the Noun plan, and by working together they were able to make the enemy go to the Location and he never came out again!
