What is Internal Audit?

Last week, while I was diligently verb - Present Tense and focused on Noun, my manager stopped by. She said "Hey Dave, I just found out that we're going to be" Oh no! I thought?!? "Why?" I asked. "Have we done something wrong? I all of my journal entries, sign off on all of my and store them on the network. What else should I be doing?" My manager just shook her head and told me to "calm down, everything is going to be just fine. We're not in trouble, our friends in Internal Audit are just trying to make sure we're doing the best possible job we can and they're really interested in helping us find operational efficiencies. They want to partner with us and help our department continue to add value and improve our areas".
