A Coding Adventure

One day, two boys were on their own computer. They saw a _____ Color _____ jolt of electricity appear. The _____ Color _____ jolt took the boys to a strange dimension. Then they saw the mouse cursor. Then the mouse took them to a website that focuses on coding. The boys saw a _____ Color _____ _____ Animal _____ appear. They also saw tons of blocks. The blocks made the _____ Animal _____ do different things. The jolt revealed himself as a byte of code. The boys said goodbye and went back to reality.
