A Coding Adventure

One day, two boys were on their own computer. They saw a _____Color_____ jolt of electricity appear. The _____Color_____ jolt took the boys to a strange dimension. Then they saw the mouse cursor. Then the mouse took them to a website that focuses on coding. The boys saw a _____Color_____ _____Animal_____ appear. They also saw tons of blocks. The blocks made the _____Animal_____ do different things. The jolt revealed himself as a byte of code. The boys said goodbye and went back to reality.
