The Falling Earth

The _____<sup>Noun</sup> shook, and the ground beneath my feet _____<sup>Verb - Past Tense</sup>. I couldn't believe what was happening. I was _____<sup>Verb - Present ends in ING</sup> into a _____<sup>Adjective</sup>, _____<sup>Adjective</sup> hole. When I reached the bottom, it was _____<sup>Adjective</sup>. There was no one else down there. I pulled the flashlight out of my pocket and took a look at what was around me. Then a shadow appeared. I looked at it for a while, but the shadow disappeared. I started to follow it through the dark and wet tunnel. When the shadow reached a dead end, it jumped into the water. I wasn't going in the water, so I followed it from the path. The figure popped its head out of the water, and I stopped. I couldn't believe who it was. It was my sister.
