Ramblin Man

Lord, I was born a ramblin' Noun,

Tryin' to make a livin' and doin' the Pronoun I can.

And when it's time for leavin',

I hope you'll understand,

That I was born a ramblin' man.

Well my father was a Pronoun down in State or city,

He wound up on the wrong end of a weapon.

And I was born in the back seat of a Name of company bus

Rollin' down highway 41.

Lord, I was born a ramblin' man,

Tryin' to make a livin' and doin' the best I can.

And when it's time for leavin',

I hope you'll understand,

That I was born a ramblin' man.

I'm on my way to New Orleans this mornin',

Leaving out of Nashville, Tennessee,

They're always having a good time down on the bayou,

Lord, them Delta women think the world of me.
