Proper Noun snatched the schedule back, blushing furiously.

They finished lunch and went outside into the overcast courtyard. Hermione sat down on a stone Noun and buried her nose in Voyages with Proper Noun again. Harry and Ron stood talking about Quidditch for several minutes before Harry became aware that he was being closely watched. Looking up, he saw the very small Adjective boy he'd seen trying on the sorting Noun last night staring at Harry as though transfixed. He was clutching what looked like an ordinary Muggle Noun, and the moment Harry looked at him, he went bright red.

"All right, Harry? I'm - I'm Colin Creevey," he said Adverb, taking a tentative step forward.
"I'm in Gryffindor, too. D'you think - would it be all right if - can I have a Noun?" he said, raising the camera hopefully.

"A Verb - Past Tense?" Harry repeated blankly.

"So I can prove I've met you," Colin Creevey eagerly, edging further forward. "I know all about you. Everyone's told me. About how you survived when Proper Noun tried to kill you and how he Verb-Past Tense and everything and how you've still got a Noun scar on your forehead" (his eyes raked Harry's hairline) "and a boy in my Noun said if I develop the film in the right potion, the Noun move." Colin drew a great shuddering breath of Noun and said, "it's amazing here, isn't it? I never knew all the odd stuff I could do was magic till I got the letter from Hogwarts. My dad's a Iob, he couldn't believe it either. So I'm taking loads of pictures to send Location to him. And it'd be really good if I had one of Pronoun" - he looked imploringly at Harry - "maybe your friend could take it and I could stand next to you? And then, could you Verb it?"
