Bank Lyyyyfe

Superman, Batman and Spiderman begin their Noun to the Adjective Bar Harbor Bank & Trust, which just so happens to be where they work when not tending to saving peoples ______. Right when the three arrive, only one is able to enter the bank because there are Adjective security procedures set up to make sure Noun is maintained throughout the Noun and to the super hero's working that day. Spiderman Verb - Past Tense his web around to Verb all of the Noun - Plural on and using his Spidey Sense, checks to make sure there isn't any Adjective villain intruders lurking around . Once the Noun is clear he from any shenanigan-causing Noun - Plural he sets the all clear signal to let the other heroes know it's safe to enter the ______. Superman and Batman proceed into the Noun and begin to setup; everyone logs into their Noun , signs into Proper Noun , launches Proper Noun and signs into UltiPro so they are able to get paid to ______ Verb_____ as they normally do. Once into the vault, everyone gathers their cash drawers and two people set time delay. This allows the Proper Noun Hero to move Noun to the working vault for the Noun . Superman and Spiderman open Night Drop, which is where Noun - Plural throw their Noun - Plural after hours for processing the following Noun . Night drop gets finished up and the bank opens simultaneously. An upset customer, the Joker, is already Verb - Present Tense in ranting about how he keeps getting Noun calls from the Noun regarding an overdraft fee.

am not joking around." the joker claims, as "punny" as he is. "This is UNBELIEVABLE. I have had my Noun with the Noun for five years and not once have I over drafted. I mean, I could have made a mistake, but I do not ______ what this POS purchase was a for a couple ______ ago "Trying to sort this problem out, Superman goes to Batman because although he may be Adjective _____Adjective_____, he is not necessarily _____Adjective_____ knowledgeable on all banking transactions and how to troubleshoot Joker's dilemma. "How often do you use your debt card?" Batman asked. "I never do. I have one just in case of an _____. Look, I have it right-wait?!" Joker began to Adverb flail around for Number minutes searching for where his debit card may have disappeared to. After Joker's Noun , Batman concluded there may be some fraudulent Noun -Plural made to his Noun with his lost debit Noun. Batman immediately Hot Carded Joker's debit card and Adverb issued him a new card. Seeing the Noun in Joker's eyes, Batman took Noun on the Joker and had Superman enter a TMS to reverse his overdraft fee, strictly as a Number time courtesy. Spiderman then Verb - Past Tense joker the number to Elan's Dispute Center so he could dispute the ______. The Joker was feeling better about what had happened and thanked the Superhero's for their Adjective customer service and went on his way. As for the Heroes, they went about their Noun, just another Noun in Bank Lyyyyfe.
