The Spin Cycle

Every day is work. Every day is the struggle. Get things done, do this, do that. Pay the Noun - Plural, feed the Noun - Plural, clean up. Do the laundry, do the dishes, do that everything. When do I ever get time for myself.

Okay, I'm in a bit of a mood. Well, two moods. I'm mood because I haven't had a spare moment in, what seems like, amount of time. And because I haven't had a spare moment, I haven't gotten off in forever. Not even a Adjective little touch of my cl*t. Nothing. And it is Verb - Present ends in ING me mood.

But just now I am realizing. The kids are at the Location. I'm alone here in the laundry room in house. Sure there is a ton of stuff to do, but that can wait. That can Verb - Present ends in ING wait! I am alone and I want to c*m!

I slip back into chore mode and load the Noun as Adverb as I can. I consider Verb - Present ends in ING the clothes I've got on it as well, but that wouldn't be smart, in case the kids suddenly come home. But I do Verb - Base Form them off, taking a moment to run my hands up and down my Adjective skin. This is so Verb - Present ends in ING !

I

turn it on and hear it begin to fill up. I put a load of whites in to ensure it will be nice and Adjective.

Jumping up, the metal is still cool at this point, but my skin Verb - Present ends in S quickly. As the machine fills up with liquid, I reach down to my name for girl part to find it is already very wet. And once my Part of Body is there, I can't take it away. All of these weeks of built up frustration are coming out now! Adjective and furious I work my cl*t, no self-seduction here. I want to come, now.

And when I do, it is Verb - Present ends in ING! Such a release! I lean back against the wall, one foot Verb - Present ends in ING on the dryer the other Adjective and spread out in the air. Pulse after pulse, wave after wave of orgasm rocks my body. I ride them all, still going at it. I have this time to myself and I am going to take advantage of it and me!

After my past tense number - third climax, my Part of Body begs for a little break. Steam from the washer rises up, mixing with the light coating of sweat that covers me. My name for girl part is completely soaked and just a little bit sore. Maybe I was a bit too sexy adjective.

But then it kicks in. Just as I try to rest, the washer starts its spin cycle.

The build is slow at first, but the vibration is evident. And Verb - Present ends in ING stronger. As it builds, my need for one more becomes too much and my plural body part find my name for girl part once again.

The

machine and I both find our peak rhythm, full power on! The washer rocks me and I close my plural body part and throw my head back. This is Adjective and intense. I don't know that I can handle it!

In an attempt to slow it down I lean forward and take my hand away. I try to rest by leaning forward to the dryer but that won't do it! This rests my cl*t Adverb on the vibrating washer and instead of a break I get a massive orgasm! I can barely keep myself on the machine as bolts of pleasure shoot through all parts of my Part of Body. I feel like I'm electric, an extension of the massive swirl happening right underneath my Part of Body!

And then it stops. Abruptly. Just as I sit there, in a pool of my own liquid, panting. It takes a moment for my eyes to even focus. That was Adjective.

And I really need to install a lock on the laundry room door.
