school girl

Nicole's phone buzzed. It was from her _____relationship term_____, Coleman. He would often send her _____Adjective_____ messages during the day, just to say hi, or he was thinking about her. Even after _____Number_____ years, he still made her feel special, through the good, the bad and the _____Adjective_____. Since the kids had moved out, Nicole had seen a new side of Coleman. Worried that they might both suffer from 'Empty Nest' syndrome, they both made commitments to each other that they would try to surprise each other each week. This week was Coleman's week! Some weeks he would surprise her with a _____Adjective_____ dinner out, or a trip to the movies. Sometimes Nicole would give Coleman an 'all over' massage or she'd cook his favorite dinner. It was Thursday and Coleman had not surprised her yet. Nicole was getting a little disappointed!

_____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ up her phone, she read the message

"Sending you something in the post. For tonight. Lots of love, Daddy XO"

Coleman had never signed off as 'Daddy' before! Nicole wondered, what could he be up to? Does he want more children? Is he really missing the kids? What could be going on?

Trying to put it out of her mind, Nicole continued about her daily tasks. A subsequent message from Coleman told her simply that I'll organize dinner. XO Daddy'. He used that term again!

About _____Number_____ pm , a courier arrived at Nicole's door. She _____Verb - Past Tense_____ for the package and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ to the kitchen table, opening it. Peering in, she could not believe it. It was - no! Peeking again, picking out the contents of the package. No! She blushed! Could it be - but - no but yes! She pulled out a school-girl like skirt and _____color_____ blouse. Inside the package was a _____color_____ lace matching bra and brief set.

It was very sexy! Her mind was immediately put at ease! Picking up her phone, she quickly texted Coleman:

'Got your package, Daddy. Can't wait for you to come home'
