The Lion

I _____ Verb - Past Tense against the thick _____ Material and smiled. The _____ Adjective lion looked out across its enclosure, watching _____ Adverb from the top of the _____ Noun. I waved again as the creature _____ Verb - Past Tense towards me.

My first time seeing a lion was as magical as anything, and I was only _____ Number years old. Its _____ Part of Body was big and _____ Adjective, and its _____ Adjective, _____ Adjective hair caught the sunlight. His sharp _____ Part of Body were bared at me, but I only laughed. The fierce, proud creature was so _____ Adjective that I couldn't resist begging my mum to take a _____ Noun straight away. I kept that picture on my bedside _____ Noun from then on. It was absolutely _____ Adjective.

I saw other wonders that day at the zoo, like _____ Animal (plural) and _____ Animal (plural) and _____ Animal (plural), but none as breathtaking as the lion.
