

Beached Whales

1. Verb
2. Adjective
3. Adjective
4. Verb
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Adjective
8. Noun
9. Adjective
10. Present Tense Verb
11. Noun

Beached Whales

One day Kylie, Heather, Matt, and Bailey were in a group together for an activity in English. Their task was to _____ Verb_____ of a scene to perform in class. The group decided to create a beached theme. It was a very Adjective_____ idea. They each chose their roles that they were going to play. Bailey chose the old guy getting a burnt belly while sleeping. Matt chose to be the hot woman walking her dogs along the water. Heather chose to be the _____ Adjective_____ teenager who _____ Verb_____ to her I-pod around everybody. Kylie chose to be the Noun_____ beached whale. The three other kids looked at Kylie as if she were a _____ Noun_____. As the group practiced their scene everybody could help but notice how _____ Adjective_____ Kylie's beached whale impression was very daft. So Matt decided to help. He lay down on the floor and flopped around and made _____ Noun_____

noises. Bailey decided his beached whale impression was _____ Adjective_____. So Bailey got on the floor and flopped his feet around, thinking it was his tail. Then out of no where he roared! The rest of the group Present tense verb_____ him, thinking he got a rug burn. Kylie decided to combine the two impressions she was shown together. She made a _____ Noun_____ for the better! The group got an A+ on the project, thanks to Kylie's wonderful beached whale impression!