Of Mice and Men Chapter 1

Two Noun - Plural, George Proper Noun and Lennie Proper Noun, are on their way to a new Noun at an Adjective Noun. They are job Verb-ing in Proper Noun after being thrown out of Weed when Lennie Adverb was accused of attempted attack of a Adjective character, although he only likes to Verb nice things like Noun - Plural. During the 1st chapter George Conjunction Lennie bicker and Verb and Verb Preposition each other's emotions. Preposition the brush, as the 2 characters are so Adjective, they bicker over how they get through life together, Conjunction how Pronoun would be easier if Pronoun went their separate ways and how Lennie is holding George back from Pronoun Noun.
