The Secret

There's this guy I know, named name of a guy you know

I always had a Adjective feeling looking at him.

His Adjective body part, the way his body part is colour, and that scarily Adjective Verb - Base Form. I knew there was something off about him, but I could never guess what.

Then one day, he came to school with some something that stains or sticks to clothing on his clothing, but where did IT COME FROM?? I didn't think much of it until I saw him coming out of the school room with liquid all over his body part. This was odd, so I went around the school investigating.

His older sister gave me the password to his website site and the combination to his locker because I gave them number Noun - Plural. I found out the strangest things! He likes Noun - Plural, a musician called a musician or band name, and often uses the phrase "annoying or cringe worthy phrase".

Suddenly, it was all clear!

Verb - Present ends in ING into the class he was in, I pointed and shouted as loud as a Noun, I KNEW IT!

same name of the guy you know

IS A

the name of certain musician fan or what you call members to a certain fandom
