How to Fit Yourself to a Dirt Bike

Before riding a dirt bike you want to make sure you have the proper , riding boots, and/Something else to consider is whether you want a 2 stroke dirt bike or a 4 stroke. After doing this pick the right dirt bike. This means to pick a bike that wont you around, or something that you would want more on. Ok, so after doing theses tasks you want to straddle the bike to get feel for the bike. If the bike is too off the ground for you to touch you can either loosen the suspension, or look for a different bike. So, after you find the right bike don't forget your safety equipment. Lastly start it up and have some!
